

Further & Higher Education

You will have a wide variety of options available to you at A level or University, subjects including; Law, journalism, film and television, banking, consultancy, marketing, museum and gallery work, teaching, academia, administration, police work, medicine, computer science, accountancy and civil service.

Careers

Possible careers may include; Classics, Classical Civilisation, Ancient History, Humanities, Law; Art History; Archaeology; Latin A level is a facilitating subject and a highly regarded 'third option' A level which combines with most Further/Higher Education subjects. Many students have received offers for Medical or Maths courses with Latin as their third A level.

