

Your Drama Journey

Further & Higher Education

Drama can be studied in many different forms following GCSE, such as A Level Drama & Theatre, BTEC Drama or BTEC Performing Arts. You may decide to pursue Drama to degree level with a range of courses available, such as Drama and Theatre Arts, or Drama, Dance and Cinematics. You may also choose to pursue acting, performance or design through work experience, apprenticeships or direct employment.

Careers

Drama may lead you to a career in film/theatre/tv/media/such as acting, lighting, sound, make-up, hair, props, designing, scriptwriting, broadcasting, drama therapy, presenting, researching, theatre directing, theatre stage management, teaching, or community arts.

